2018 WALTON-VERONA YOUTH FOOTBALL CODE OF CONDUCT

The Athletic Code of Conduct outlines the behavior that Walton-Verona Youth Football (WVYF) expects from its coaches, players, cheerleaders and parents. Please read the following items to see the type of behavior we expect from all participants at Walton-Verona Youth Football Events.

Coaches, parents and athletes are all essential participants in the success of our athletic program, but more importantly, they are the key to the healthy development of each young player who chooses to participate in football within Walton-Verona Youth Football Association. We want that experience to be a positive one that fosters the pursuit of excellence in all facets of life. It is important to understand that participation in Walton-Verona Youth Football is a privilege.

Organized sports provide the perfect arena to learn about life. What athletes experience and learn in that arena should become part of a strong foundation from which to build the rest of their lives. We look forward to your involvement in the Walton-Verona Youth Football program.

Athlete's Code

Athletes who participate in organized sports have a tremendous opportunity for growth. Athletes develop their strength, coordination, endurance, and specific skills related to the sport they play. But athletes would be missing the greatest gift sports have to offer if they limited themselves to physical prowess. Athletes who gain the most from sports have allowed their minds and spirits, as well as their bodies, to grow as they experience the wins and losses of organized sports. Those who have challenged themselves to be the best they can be, not just in the game, but during practice as well, will develop characteristics they will use throughout their lifetime. Athletics, if allowed, will teach young people about never giving up, about taking pride in all they do, about feeling joy or empathy for others, and about making friends. Most of all, sports will teach athletes to believe in themselves and their abilities.

Walton Verona Youth Football Code of Conduct for Athletes:

- ✓ I will always be a good sport, whether winning or losing.
- ✓ I will always show respect for all players, coaches, and officials.
- ✓ I will never use obscene language or gestures.
- ✓ I will support my team in a positive way, whether playing or on the sidelines.
- ✓ I will understand that I am a role model for others.
- ✓ I will give my best effort and attention at practice and during the games.
- ✓ I will play fair, and follow the rules of the game.
- ✓ I will respect all opponents and their effort.
- ✓ I understand that the amount of time I participate in each contest will be determined by the coach.
- ✓ I will be humble and realize that my individual accomplishments are only possible because of my teammates.

Coach's Code

The role of a coach is unique and most challenging because he or she is attempting to modify the behavior of both mind and body. The parents are depending on the coach for the welfare of the player as well as for developing proper attitude and physical skills. The coach is in the position to demonstrate moral leadership during pressurized and competitive situations. The coach is in the unique position of being liked, trusted, and respected in an informal atmosphere. At Walton-Verona, our coaches are expected to accept the responsibility of furthering the development of a player on and off the field.

Walton Verona Youth Football Code of Conduct for Coaches:

- ✓ I will place the emotional and physical well-being of my players ahead of any personal desire to win.
- ✓ I will remember to treat each player as an individual, remembering the large spread of emotional and physical development for the same age group.
- ✓ I will do my very best to provide a safe situation for my players.

- ✓ I promise to review and practice the necessary first aid principles needed to treat injuries of my players.
 - ✓ I will do my best to organize practices that are fun and challenging for all my players.
 - ✓ I will ensure that I am knowledgeable in the rules of each sport that I coach, and that I will teach these rules to my players.
- ✓ I will use coaching techniques appropriate for each of the skills that I teach.
 - ✓ I will remember that I am a youth coach, and that the game is for the children, and not the adults.

Parent's Code

Parents are offered a rare opportunity as they allow their child to enter the world of sports. This world provides the players with an arena for exercise, competition, and learning about life. It provides parents with the opportunity to teach, communicate, and build character and self-esteem in their child. While winning a game can be exciting and inspirational, Walton-Verona parents are expected to help teach players that winning does not define the importance or worth of the team or the individual player.

Walton Verona Youth Football Code of Conduct for Parents:

- ✓ I will always be supportive.
- ✓ I will not coach from the sidelines.
- ✓ I will not yell negative remarks at players, coaches, other teams, or referees.
- ✓ I will support the coaching staff.
- ✓ I will always have praise for my child's athletic performance.
- ✓ I will help the athlete to set realistic goals.
- ✓ I will provide a shoulder to cry on when needed.
- ✓ I will teach sports etiquette and good sportsmanship.
- ✓ I will educate the athlete regarding team loyalty and responsibility.
- ✓ I will help the athlete to communicate with the coaching staff in a positive way.
- ✓ I will follow the proper line of communication to resolve problems.
- ✓ I will always cheer the athlete and the team.
- ✓ I understand that the coach will determine the amount of time my child participants.
- ✓ I will do my best to realize that my child's shortcomings and accomplishments are not my own.

Rules and Guidelines

- The line of communication to resolve problems will be:
 - Player to coach or coach to player
 - Parent to coach or coach to parent
- If the above line of communication is not effective;
 - Coach or parent to director of the board.
- A meeting of all coaches will be held to discuss and review policies.
- Foul language and unsportsmanlike behavior will not be tolerated by coaches, players or fans. Violators may be asked to leave the team and/or not permitted to attend games.
- Each coach should also have a meeting with the parents of their players, to go over team rules, etc. Coaches should give each parent a monthly schedule of all practices and games.
